

Influencing Social Policy in the Era of COVID 19
A COVID-19 SOCIAL POLICY BIBLIOGRAPHY
 Prepared for ISP by Mimi Abramovitz
 May 10, 2020

This sCOVID-19 Social Policy Bibliography was prepared for social welfare policy courses but can be used in policy practice and many other courses. The materials, organized topically for easier review, have been only lightly vetted. They consist of newspaper articles, op-eds, and thought pieces written by people trying to assess the pandemic and its impact during its first few months. All are accessible through internet links. Overview is followed by detailed bibliography
